

Values

1. Underline the values that are important to you
2. Place an "x" beside the 10 values that are most important to you
3. Rank those marked with an "x" in order of importance from 1 – 10 (1 = most important)
4. Have your spouse or a close friend pick out your top 10 values

Achievement
Analysis
Attractive facilities
Authenticity
Authority
Biblical fidelity
Caring/nurturing
Civil rights
Cooperation
Commitment
Community
Competence
Communion with God
Counseling
Creativity
Discipline
Discipleship
Diversity
Education
Effectiveness Encouragement
Enthusiasm
Ethics
Equality
Emotional health
Evangelism
Excellence
Faith
Family
Fellowship
Flexibility
Financial stability
Formality
Freedom

Generosity
Giftedness for ministry
Godliness
Grace
Growth
Harmony
Health
Holiness
Hospitality
Humility
Humour
Integration
Integrity
Independence
Informality
Individualism
Influence
Interdependence
Justice
Kindness
Knowledge
Leadership development
Lifelong learning
Love
Loyalty
Maturity
Mentoring
Missions
Modeling Christ
Morality
Originality
Patience
People
Physical appearance

Pleasure
Power
Prayer
Non-discrimination
Obedience
Organization
Optimism
Purity
Relevance
Rules
Scholarship
Servant attitude
Skill
Simplicity
Spirituality
Status quo
Study
Teaching
Teamwork
Tithing
Vision
Wisdom
Worship
Unity

My Top 10 Values:

My Spouse/Friend's List of My Top 10 Values:

1. Compare your personal values to those of the organization you are leading in. Do they match or clash?

Stated values of my organization:

Lived out values of my organization:

Resourcing pastors to build lives that thrive

Renewing the Flame - Cathy Gates
www.thriveministries.ca
info@thriveministries.ca